

Cherry Alexander

Cherry Ann Hall Alexander began her journey with TCC in 1970. While attending TCC, she worked as a student assistant in administration, later in the library and the first African-American switchboard operator at TCC. After graduating from TCC Cherry graduated from FSU with a B. S. and M.L.S. degrees. After graduation, Cherry worked at FSU as a LTA I and II, Librarian and Dept. Head at the State Library, Legislative Analyst in the Florida House of Representatives, Librarian with Jacksonville Public Libraries, and Dept. Chair/Director with Florida Community

College at Jacksonville. She returned to TCC as Director of Library Service, retiring in 2009. Cherry is the founder of the Cherry Hall Alexander African-American History Calendar and has a TCC scholarship named in her honor.
