

Laurie Lawson Cox

Laurie Lawson Cox is currently a physical education teacher at Roberts Elementary School in Tallahassee. After graduating from TCC and Auburn, she taught and coached in Augusta Georgia for 3 years before returning to Tallahassee. She met and married Dr. T Alan Cox (former Principal at Chiles High School) and they have one son, Lee. All three attended and graduated from TCC. Laurie has taught for 31 years and has worked on writing curriculum, developing standards, working with DOE on teacher certification exams, is involved in the state organization for health and physical education, and has lobbied on behalf of physical education and health issues. Laurie has also been involved teaching at her church with youth and college aged students, has volunteered as a basketball coach and referee with Upward Basketball, and has spent many summers working at a summer camp in North Carolina (Camp Crestridge for Girls); speaking, playing the piano, as music director, and working with campers and college aged staffers.
