

Cindy Dick

Since 2014 Cindy Dick has served as the Director of the Division of Emergency Service and Community Support for the Florida Department of Health. In that capacity, she was the Incident Commander for Florida's response to the emergence of the Ebola and Zika Viruses. Additionally, Cindy was charged with the development and oversight of Florida's Trauma System, Central Pharmacy, radiation licensing and monitoring and preparedness and response efforts for public health emergencies

Cindy began her career in fire service and was the first woman chief of the Tallahassee Fire Department. As such she was responsible for leading a staff of 280 personnel, which served nearly 300,000 citizens and respond to over 26,000 emergencies annually.
